

Name: _____

Date: _____

KiSH Handout

In order for us to make improvements, it is necessary for us to be able to open up and take critique from others. Receiving critique is a helpful process that allows us to better our work. Remember to be kind, specific, and helpful.

Statistical Question:

What is striking about their question? What are some good good “warm” feedback to give?

How could the question be improved?