

The Next 100 Years Project Reflection

Directions: Finish each sentence completely on a separate sheet of paper (YES! YOU NEED TO WRITE A ROUGH DRAFT ON LINED PAPER!). On your separate sheet of paper, you should create three paragraphs, and title the paragraphs “Project Purpose,” “What I learned,” and “Reflection.”

When you are finished, turn your neatly hand-written reflection in to Mr. Curtis.

PROJECT PURPOSE

For this paragraph you should describe things we had to do to complete this project and why we did them. Consider reflecting on our collaborative field trip with HTMCV and the climate change agents, Inc. activity, selecting your topic of interest to research about climate change, working on your research outline and graphic organizer with your partner, creating your article together, choosing the illustrations for your article, talk about the decision process on brainstorming and creating your comic strip, creating your art piece, visiting Legoland and Birch Aquarium’s Climate Change Exhibit

1. The main purpose of this project was to learn about (lots of details!!!)...
2. Here are the steps we took to complete this project (details):
 - a. First we...
 - b. Next, we...
 - c. Then, we...
 - d. After that, we...
 - e. Finally, we...

WHAT I LEARNED

1. Why do you care about climate change? Be specific and detailed during this response.
2. Explain the greenhouse effect.
3. What are some alternative energy sources?
4. What affect does warmer oceans have on marine life and coral reefs?
5. How does using electricity connect to carbon emissions?
6. What did you learn while creating your article?
7. How did you use critique in this project to write your script and edit your comic strip?
8. What did you learn about climate change when you visited the birch aquarium?
9. What is the most valuable thing that you learned from completing this project?

REFLECTION

1. After completing this project, I feel REALLY good about...
2. The most FUN part of this project was _____ because....
3. The most challenging part of the project was _____ because...
4. I think I did well on this project because...
5. A part of this project that I wish was different is...
6. If I could do this project again, I would....
7. After this project, I am personally helping to reduce carbon pollution by...