

Project Calendar
 Music Project
 Math/Science

Directions: As we are now moving into the project being more independent, it is your responsibility to make sure that you are taking care of specific assignments and meeting specific due dates. Here is a calendar to refresh you on what parts of the project are due as we lead into Exhibition.

		2/24 Working on Adobe Illustrator - creating your section of the brain engraved into a piece of wood using the laser cutter (so cool!)	2/25 Part 2 of Scientific Experiments (Finishing writing procedures, creating & collecting materials or Implementing experiment)	2/26 Continue working on Adobe Illustrator
2/29 Continue working on Adobe Illustrator	3/01 Part 3 of Scientific Experiments (finishing up experiments or begin testing)	3/02 Continue working on Adobe Illustrator	3/03 Finishing up with Scientific Experiments	3/04 1st Draft of product due and cut out on cardboard for critique/ Scientific Experiments Due!
3/07 Critique session on laser cutter design/Begin final draft	3/08 Begin working on Glogster	3/09 Continue working on Glogster/Finishing Adobe Illustrator	3/10 Continue working on Glogsters/Finishing Adobe Illustrator	3/11 Glogsters Due! Adobe Illustrator Final Designs Due!
3/14 Present Glogsters	3/15 Present Glogsters/Exhibition Prep	3/16 Present Glogsters/Exhibition Prep	3/17 Test on the brain & scientific method Exhibition!	3/18 Reflect on Project

--	--	--	--	--